Management Discussion of Fund Performance

Results of Operations

Renaissance Global Markets Fund's (the Fund) portfolio sub-advisor is Causeway Capital Management LLC (the sub-advisor). The commentary that follows provides a summary of the results of operations for the six-month period ended February 29, 2020. All dollar figures are expressed in thousands, unless otherwise indicated.

The Fund's net asset value decreased by 10% during the period, from $84,489 as at August 31, 2019 to $76,291 as at February 29, 2020. Net redemptions of $9,462 were partially offset by slightly positive investment performance, resulting in an overall decrease in net asset value.

Class A units of the Fund posted a return of 0.6% for the period. The Fund's benchmark, the MSCI World Index (the benchmark), returned 2.1% for the same period. The Fund's return is after the deduction of fees and expenses, unlike the benchmark's return. See Past Performance for the returns of other classes of units offered by the Fund.

The outbreak of COVID-19 led to concerns about global gross domestic product (GDP) growth, with the greatest impact on China and South Korea. Prior to the outbreak, China contributed roughly 16% of global GDP and approximately 40% of marginal demand globally. Monetary policymakers began implementing supportive measures to ease the financial impact of a prolonged economic slowdown.

The U.S. economy was resilient, with strong equity market performance through the end of 2019. High-valuation growth stocks, particularly within the information technology sector, led the market higher in 2019. In the fourth-quarter, financial markets benefited from an increase in liquidity from the U.S. Federal Reserve Board (the Fed), with its expanding balance sheet. U.S. equities started 2020 with generally positive returns, driven by a de-escalation in tensions between the U.S. and Iran, the signing of a U.S.-China "phase one" trade deal, improving economic data and accommodative central banks around the globe. However, volatility increased at the end of January on COVID-19 concerns.

The COVID-19 outbreak weakened demand across the travel and tourism industry and caused disruptions in global supply chains. Increasing concerns led U.S. bond yields to fall sharply, resulting in an inverted yield curve, which put pressure on U.S. equities. February's services Purchasing Managers' Index dropped from January's 53.4 to approximately 49.4 as a result of COVID-19 concerns. Meanwhile, the ISM Non-Manufacturing Index remained steady.

Sovereign bond yields declined significantly amid uncertainty over COVID-19's economic impact. Concerns pushed an already compressed term premium (the additional compensation investors require for lending for longer periods) to a near-record low.

Stock selection in Canada, France, China and Japan detracted from the Fund's performance. A moderate underweight allocation to Canada and significant overweight exposure to China also detracted from performance, as did a significant overweight allocation to Germany.

Stock selection in the software and services, transportation and media and entertainment industry groups detracted from performance. Moderate overweight allocations to software and services and transportation also detracted from performance, as did a moderate underweight exposure to media and entertainment. Other detractors included a significant overweight allocation to communication services and a moderate underweight allocation to semiconductors and equipment industry group.

Individual detractors from the Fund's performance included Sabre Corp. and Ovintiv Inc. Travel and tourism technology company Sabre was affected by weaker demand for travel in the wake of the COVID-19 outbreak. Additionally, the company has engaged in elevated technology investments that should enhance its competitiveness in the long term, but that have resulted in depressed earnings in the short term.

Oil exploration and production company Ovintiv was also affected by COVID-19 concerns that pressured oil prices. Investors were also disappointed by updated Anadarko Basin inventory figures and the company's free cash flow outlook. The company's re-domicile from Canada to the U.S. may have added further technical pressure when the listing was removed from the Toronto Stock Exchange as a result of index-related selling.

Stock selection and significant overweight allocations to South Korea and the U.K. contributed to the Fund's performance. Moderate overweight exposures to Italy and Switzerland also contributed, as did a significant underweight allocation to the U.S.

From an industry group perspective, a significant overweight allocation to capital goods and moderate overweight exposure to banking contributed to the Fund's performance. A slight overweight allocation to technology hardware and equipment contributed as well. A significant underweight allocation to retailing and a moderate underweight exposure to the food, beverage and tobacco industry group were also contributors to performance. Stock selection in these industry groups contributed to the Fund's performance as well.

Individual contributors to performance included SYNEX Corp., Samsung Electronics Co. Ltd. and Barclays PLC. SYNEX performed well as cost synergies related to an acquisition are a year ahead of schedule and business growth has been robust. Electronic equipment manufacturer Samsung benefited from continued improvements in the outlook for memory pricing and 5G smartphone growth. Barclays made strides in its restructuring program, particularly in relation to shedding non-core assets and reducing costs.

The sub-advisor introduced a number of new securities to the Fund. Siemens AG was added after it announced plans to sell its power and gas unit to focus on digital industries and smart infrastructure. The sub-advisor believes this could expose a high-quality automation business that currently trades at a discount to peers.

Air France-KLM was purchased for its dominant market share in a high-yielding network and strong international partnerships. Its share price has underperformed in recent years as a result of poor labour relations and weaker short- and long-haul operations. The sub-advisor believes the company is primed for a turning point with a new CEO at the helm. Exelon Corp. was purchased for its strong free cash flow following news of a federal corruption investigation that led to the resignation of senior executives. The regulated utility business has demonstrated the ability to grow its rate base at above average levels.

Bank of America Corp. and Flowserve Corp. were eliminated after strong performance and based on relative valuations. A holding in East Japan Railway Co. was exited after its shares performed well prior to the cyclical rotation in the fourth quarter of 2019. KDDI Corp. and UniCredit SPA were trimmed after strong share price performance. A holding in Prudential PLC was reduced amid a decline in its Asian business following the COVID-19 outbreak.

The Fund's higher portfolio turnover rate for the period was due to the sub-advisor being replaced by the Fund's portfolio advisor.

Recent Developments

The composition of the Independent Review Committee (IRC) changed. Don Hunter and Merle Kriss retired effective April 26, 2020. David Forster and Deborah Leckman were appointed as members of the IRC effective April 27, 2020.

The outbreak of COVID-19 (the disease caused by a new coronavirus) in China in December 2019, and its subsequent spread and designation as a global pandemic, has caused a slowdown in global economic activity and sustained market volatility. This has impacted global markets, with the most significant valuation changes occurring since the end of the review period. This has affected, or could affect, the performance of the Fund in an adverse manner.

Effective on or about March 2, 2020, CIBC Asset Management Inc., as Portfolio Advisor of the Fund, will directly provide investment management services to the Fund, replacing Causeway Capital Management LLC.

Effective January 30, 2020, the annual management fee payable was reduced from 1.75% to 1.70% in respect of Class A units of the Fund, and from 0.75% to 0.70% in respect of Class F units of the Fund.

Related Party Transactions

CIBC and its affiliates have the following roles and responsibilities with respect to the Fund, and receive the fees described below in connection with their roles and responsibilities.

Manager, Trustee, and Portfolio Advisor of the Fund

CAMI, a wholly-owned subsidiary of CIBC, is the Fund's Manager, Trustee, and Portfolio Advisor. As Manager, CAMI receives management fees with respect to the Fund's day-to-day business and operations, calculated based on the net asset value of each respective class of units of the Fund as described in Management Fees. As Trustee, CAMI holds title to the Fund's property (cash and securities) on behalf of its unitholders. As Portfolio Advisor, CAMI provides, or arranges to provide, investment advice and portfolio management services to the Fund. CAMI also compensates dealers in connection with their marketing activities regarding the Fund. From time to time, CAMI may invest in units of the Fund.

Distributor

Dealers and other firms sell units of the Fund to investors. These dealers and other firms include CAMI's related dealers such as the CIBC Investor's Edge discount brokerage division of CIBC Investor Services Inc. (CIBC ISI), the CIBC Imperial Service division of CIBC ISI, and the CIBC Wood Gundy division of CIBC World Markets Inc. (CIBC WM). CIBC ISI and CIBC WM are wholly-owned subsidiaries of CIBC.

CAMI may pay sales commissions and trailing commissions to these dealers and firms in connection with the sale of units of the Fund. These dealers and other firms may pay a portion of these sales commissions and trailing commissions to their advisors who sell units of the Fund to investors.

Brokerage Arrangements and Soft Dollars

CAMI generally delegates trading and execution authority to the portfolio sub-advisors and does not, in its capacity as portfolio advisor, receive any goods or services directly through soft dollar arrangements.

The Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisors make decisions, including the selection of markets and dealers and the negotiation of commissions, with respect to the purchase and sale of portfolio securities, certain derivative products and the execution of portfolio transactions. Brokerage business may be allocated by the Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisor to CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., each a subsidiary of CIBC. CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp. may also earn spreads on the sale of fixed income securities, other securities, and certain derivative products to the Fund. A spread is the difference between the bid and ask prices for a security in the applicable marketplace, with respect to the execution of portfolio transactions. The spread will differ based upon various factors such as the nature and liquidity of the security.

Dealers, including CIBC WM and CIBC World Markets Corp., may furnish goods and services, other than order execution, to the Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisors when they process trades through them (referred to in the industry as “soft-dollar” arrangements). These goods and services are paid for with a portion of the brokerage commissions and assist the Portfolio Advisor and any portfolio sub-advisor with investment decision-making services for the Fund or relate directly to the execution of portfolio transactions on behalf of the Fund. As per the terms of the portfolio sub-advisory agreements, such soft dollar arrangements are in compliance with applicable laws.

In addition, the Manager may enter into commission recapture arrangements with certain dealers with respect to the Fund. Any commission recaptured will be paid to the Fund.

During the period, the Fund did not pay any brokerage commissions or other fees to CIBC WM or CIBC World Markets Corp. Spreads associated with fixed income and other securities are not ascertainable and, for that reason, cannot be included when determining these amounts.

Fund Transactions

The Fund may enter into one or more of the following transactions (the Related Party Transactions) in reliance on the standing instructions issued by the IRC:

- invest in or hold equity securities of CIBC or issuers related to the Portfolio Advisor;
- invest in or hold non-exchange-traded debt securities of CIBC or an issuer related to CIBC, with terms-to-maturity of 365 days or more, issued in a primary offering and in the secondary market;
- make an investment in the securities of an issuer for which CIBC WM, CIBC World Markets Corp., or any affiliate of CIBC (a Related Dealer) acts as an underwriter during the offering of the securities or at any time during the 60-day period following the completion of the offering of such securities (in the case of a “private placement” offering, in accordance with the exemptive relief order granted by the Canadian securities regulatory authorities and in accordance with the policies and procedures relating to such investment);

- purchase equity and debt securities from or sell them to a Related Dealer, where it is acting as principal;
- undertake currency and currency derivative transactions where a Related Dealer is the counterparty;
- purchase securities from or sell securities to another investment fund or a managed account managed by the Manager or an affiliate of the Manager; and
- engage in in-specie transfers by receiving portfolio securities from, or delivering portfolio securities to, a managed account or another investment fund managed by the Manager or an affiliate, in respect of a purchase or redemption of units of the Fund, subject to certain conditions.

At least annually, the IRC reviews the Related Party Transactions for which they have issued standing instructions. The IRC is required to advise the Canadian securities regulatory authorities, after a matter has been referred to or reported to it by the Manager, if it determines that an investment decision was not made in accordance with conditions imposed by securities legislation or the IRC in any Related Party Transactions requiring its approval.

Custodian

CIBC Mellon Trust Company is the custodian of the Fund (the Custodian). The Custodian holds all cash and securities for the Fund and ensures that those assets are kept separate from any other cash or securities that the custodian might be holding. The Custodian also provides other services to the Fund including record-keeping and processing of foreign exchange transactions. The fees and spreads for services of the Custodian directly related to the execution of portfolio transactions by the Fund are paid by CAMI and/or dealer(s) directed by CAMI, up to the amount of the credits generated under soft dollar arrangements from trading on behalf of the Fund during that month. All other fees and spreads for the services of the Custodian are paid by the Manager and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis. CIBC owns a 50% interest in the Custodian.

Service Provider

CIBC Mellon Global Securities Services Company (CIBC GSS) provides certain services to the Fund, including securities lending, fund accounting and reporting, and portfolio valuation. Such servicing fees are paid by the Manager and charged to the Fund on a recoverable basis. CIBC indirectly owns a 50% interest in CIBC GSS.

* Ratio has been annualized.

<sup>5</sup> Management expense ratio is based on the total expenses of the fund (excluding commissions and other portfolio transaction costs), incurred by or allocated to a class of units for the period shown, expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value of that class during the period.

<sup>6</sup> The decision to waive and/or absorb management fees and operating expenses is at the discretion of the Manager. The practice of waiving and/or absorbing management fees and operating expenses may continue indefinitely or may be terminated at any time without notice to unitholders.

<sup>7</sup> The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs before income taxes expressed as an annualized percentage of the daily average net asset value during the period. Spreads associated with fixed income securities trading are not ascertainable and, for that reason, are not included in the trading expense ratio calculation.

<sup>8</sup> The portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the portfolio advisor and/or portfolio sub-advisor manages the portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to a fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by a fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the year. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund.

Management Fees

The Fund pays CAMI an annual management fee to cover the costs of managing the Fund. Management fees are based on the Fund's net asset value and are calculated daily and paid monthly. Management fees are paid to CAMI in consideration for providing, or arranging for the provision of, management, distribution, and portfolio advisory services. Advertising and promotional expenses, office overhead expenses, trailing commissions, and the fees of the portfolio sub-advisor are paid by CAMI out of the management fees received from the Fund. The Fund is required to pay applicable taxes on the management fees paid to CAMI. Refer to the simplified prospectus for the annual management fee rate for each class of units.

For Class O units, the management fee is negotiated with and paid by, or as directed by, unitholders or dealers and discretionary managers on behalf of unitholders. Such Class O management fee will not exceed the Class F unit management fee rate.

The following table shows a breakdown of the services received in consideration of the management fees, as a percentage of the management fees collected from the Fund for the period ended February 29, 2020. These amounts do not include waived fees or absorbed expenses.

	Class A Units	Class F Units
Sales and trailing commissions paid to dealers	45.09%	0.00%
General administration, investment advice, and profit	54.91%	100.00%

Past Performance

The performance data provided assumes reinvestment of distributions only and does not take into account sales, redemption, distribution, or other optional charges payable by any unitholder that would have reduced returns. Past performance does not necessarily indicate how a fund will perform in the future.

The Fund's returns are after the deduction of fees and expenses, and the difference in returns between classes of units is primarily due to differences in the management expense ratio. See Financial Highlights section for the management expense ratio.

Year-by-Year Returns

These bar charts show the annual performance of each class of units of the Fund for each of the periods shown, and illustrate how the performance has changed from period to period. These bar charts show, in percentage terms, how an investment made on September 1 would have increased or decreased by August 31, unless otherwise indicated.

Class A Units

<sup>a</sup> 2020 return is for the period from September 1, 2019 to February 29, 2020.

Renaissance Global Markets Fund

A note on forward-looking statements

The management report of fund performance may contain forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements include statements that are predictive in nature, that depend upon or refer to future events or conditions, or that include words such as “expects”, “anticipates”, “intends”, “plans”, “believes”, “estimates”, or other similar wording. In addition, any statements that may be made concerning future performance, strategies, or prospects and possible future actions taken by the fund, are also forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance. These statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors that may cause the actual results and achievements of the fund to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to: general economic, market, and business conditions; fluctuations in securities prices, interest rates, and foreign currency exchange rates; changes in government regulations; and catastrophic events.

The above list of important factors that may affect future results is not exhaustive. Before making any investment decisions, we encourage you to consider these and other factors carefully. CIBC Asset Management Inc. does not undertake, and specifically disclaims, any obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future developments, or otherwise prior to the release of the next management report of fund performance.
